

Write the correct letter in each space.

A. Boycott	1. fair and equal right that everyone should have, like being able to go to school or play with anyone, no matter where they come from or what they look like. _____
B. Vigil	2. when a group of people suddenly come together in a public place to do something surprising, like dancing, and then quickly leave. _____
C. Advocacy	3. a group that works to help people or solve problems, like providing food, education, or protecting the environment, without being part of the government. _____
D. Non-governmental organisation	4. when people stop others from entering or using a place, like blocking a road, to show they want something to change. _____
E. Reform	5. when people try to convince leaders or lawmakers to make decisions or laws that will help solve problems they care about. _____
F. Petition	6. when people gather quietly, often holding candles, to remember someone or show they care about an important issue. _____
G. Civil right	7. a paper or online list where people write their names to ask for a change, like a new rule or a better idea. _____
H. Flash mob	8. when people peacefully break a rule or law to show that they believe it is unfair and needs to change. _____
I. Blockade	9. feeling strong and confident to make good choices and stand up for yourself and others. _____
J. Protest	10. when people peacefully sit in a place, like a government building, to show they disagree with something and want it to change. _____
K. Civil disobedience	11. making changes to fix something and make it better, like changing a rule to help everyone. _____
L. Lobbying	12. when people stop buying or using something to show they don't agree with it and want it to change. _____
M. Empowerment	13. people come together to show they are unhappy about something and want change. They might hold signs, chant slogans, march in the streets, or speak out to make their voices heard. _____
N. Sit-in	14. when people speak up and take action to help others or support something important. _____