

Write the correct letter in each space.

A. Flash mob

B. Vigil

C. Advocacy

D. Blockade

E. Petition

F. Empowerment

G. Boycott

H. Civil disobedience

I. Reform

J. Protest

K. Non-governmental organisation

L. Sit-in

M. Lobbying

N. Civil right

1. a group that works independently from the government to address social, environmental, or humanitarian issues, often through advocacy, aid, or community projects. _____

2. freedom and protection that every person should have under the law, such as the right to vote, the right to be treated equally, and the right to express themselves without fear. _____

3. the act of supporting a cause, idea, or group by speaking out, raising awareness, or taking action to create positive change. _____

4. a written request, signed by many people, that asks leaders or organizations to make a change in e.g. law or policy. _____

5. when people physically block roads or buildings to draw attention to a cause and demand change. _____

6. trying to influence government officials or lawmakers to make decisions or pass laws that support a particular cause or interest. _____

7. a peaceful gathering, usually at night, where people come together to honor someone, raise awareness, or protest, often by lighting candles and staying silent. _____

8. a demonstration, march, or strike. _____

9. a nonviolent form of protest where people deliberately refuse to follow certain laws, rules, or demands to challenge injustice and push for change. _____

10. the process of changing and improving laws, systems, or practices to make them fairer, more effective, or more just in society. _____

11. when people sit in a specific location, often in a public space or business, to protest against unfair policies or laws, refusing to leave until their demands are heard. _____

12. a form of protest where people refuse to buy, use, or support a product from a company to pressure them into making a change. _____

13. when a group of people organizes spontaneous and coordinated performative acts such as a dance or artistic display in a public space to entertain and raise awareness _____

14. a situation when people gain the confidence, skills, and rights to take control of their own lives and make positive changes _____